1. From 28 May to 1 June 1951, the troops in the Lieberose (N 52/A 49) training area were training exclusively at night. Combat training was conducted at squad level. Some groups of soldiers wore their gas masks and were engaged in road marches. Tanks fired with live ammunition in the training area at Tauer.

2. A shipment of ration supplies which arrived from Bad Saarow was consigned to Unit 25X1C and picked up at the railroad station by truck 25X1C.

- * 25X1A Comment. The troops at the Templin training area, too, were engaged exclusively in night training during the period from 21 to 27 May 1951. See 25X1C. 25X1A belongs to the Hq 7th Gds Mecz Div in Puerstenwalde, which was previously confirmed until 6 June 1951. Since 25X1C has been frequently mentioned in connection with rail shipments consigned to Bad Saarow, it is believed that a major supply installation of the division 25X1C having the same APN as the division headquarters is located there. 25X1C is assigned to the 7th Gds Mecz Div.
